Treasury:

Jackie Sabo gave a presentation to review the 2025 budget and actual numbers. She also presented the 2026 budget. She noted that the quilt show is costing the guild $3,000 more than last year because of the new location. She also noted that $1,600 of the raffle ticket money comes from member ticket sales. After review, no changes were made. A motion was made by Charlotte Doyle to approve the 2026 budget. It was seconded by Veronica Myers.

Audit Committee:

Jackie also said she would be reaching out to the Audit Committee to complete the 2025 audit. November and December are the only remaining months to be completed.

Programs:

Sandra Allred addressed programs for 2026. Twelve people signed up for the January program. Sandra also encouraged members to take these classes because the guild budgets money towards these programs. She discussed the February program for Bargello. She also talked about the April program for two charm packs and said members would need the pattern prior to the meeting. The pattern can be found in an e-Book available from the library.

Community Outreach:

Karen Bronkhorst announced the organizations that the guild will donate to in 2026. They

- include: - Atrium NICU / Jeff Gordon's Children's Hospital
- Victory Junction
- CVAN
- Hospice of Cabarrus County

- Levine Chemo Units for Concord & University
- Church of God Children's Home in Concord (www.cogch.org)
- Quilts of Valor

Quilts of Valor will also accept quilt tops. In order for a quilt to count towards a member's contribution, a completed quilt must be donated to QOV.

If a member has a specific organization they would like to donate their quilt to that is not on our list, they can do so. The organization must be a 501(c)3 organization and the member must bring a donation receipt from the organization.

Connie also announced that she will be leading making bears for Victory Junction during the Friday Charity Sew Days.

Quilts of Valor:

Ona Phillips announced the block of the year for Quilts of Valor. She also handed out copies of the pattern. Quilts of Valor will accept quilts from 55x65 to 72x90.

2026 Raffle Quilt:

Jackie Sabo discussed raffle quilt sales. We sold $193 at the Sanford show in January and $74 at Cocktails and Crafts in December. She is waiting to hear from Capital Quilters to know which day we can sell tickets at their show.

Activities:

Marsha Petrin talked about the Guild's Monthly Activities and the UFO projects. The activity for February is to complete a placemat for Meals on Wheels.

2026 Quilt Show:

Debra Mills talked about our Splash of Color Quilt Show. The judges will be Lisa Alley and Susan Edmonson. Lisa lives in Winston Salem and her fee is $500 plus mileage. Susan lives in Concord and her fee is $495. She also announced the Challenge Quilt theme which will be CARS. The possibilities are endless as long as it is related in some way to a car. The maximum size is 100 inches in total perimeter.

Miscellaneous Business:

The door prize drawing included 6 yards of Valentine's themed fabric, 2 patterns, and scissors, which Belinda Jones won. We also raffled 2 tickets to the Quilt and Needle Extravaganza in Statesville that were donated by them. Debra Mills won the tickets.

Wendy M announced committee vacancies, which include the 2027 Raffle Quilt, Picnic, and Christmas Party. We also need a committee to review the guild by-laws. The by-laws state they are to be reviewed every 2 years, but they have not been reviewed since 2020.

January birthdays were announced. Fat quarters were available for these members.

Sandra Allred reminded everyone of the Dufflebag Project on Tuesday.

Wendy M. asked everyone to help put away chairs at the end of the meeting. This will help prevent one or two people trying to return the room to the way we found it before leaving.

The last event of the evening was Show & Tell by members and our guests.

Final Business:

The meeting was officially adjourned at 8:15pm.

Minutes are respectfully submitted by Rebecca Laughter and Wendy Moffitt.
